

THE END OF DAVENING

Before leaving the shul, a person first takes off his Tefillin and then his tallis. It is good to learn a bit before leaving the shul, if possible. When he only has a short time to learn, he should say at least one posuk to show that he is not in a hurry to go away. Afterwards, he should bow, to show respect, as he leaves the shul.