

BREAD OF THE MORNING

The Gemara tells us that a person should be careful to always eat bread for breakfast. Bread gives a person energy that lasts throughout the day. The day. The Torah teaches how important it is that a person watch his health. Eating bread in the morning prevents many different kinds of sickness.